YOUR MEMBERSHIP

By becoming a member of The Arc, you help to support individuals with developmental disabilities in your community.

Your membership with The Arc strengthens the voice of those individuals and their families and allows them to be heard.

ABOUT US

The Arc of Frederick County works to guarantee people with developmental disabilities the same rights and opportunities enjoyed by everyone else.

The Arc helps people exercise the right to be contributing members of society, to receive quality education, to be gainfully employed, to live in homes with friends and family, and to direct their own lives.

For almost 60 years, The Arc has partnered with the Frederick community to build inclusive programs for children and adults. Volunteer opportunities exist to share talents and to support The Arc of Frederick County in creating enviable lives for people with developmental disabilities.
